KILLS BEAR IN KITCHEN

Mrs. Rogers Shoots Animal That Chased Men and Terrorized Neighborhood.

Waterbury, Conn., Aug. 15.—A black bear, weighing three hundred pounds, had the impudence to walk in Mrs. William Rogers' kitchen today and to disarrange the shining pots and pans on which Mrs. Rogers, good housewife, takes just pride.

Mrs. Rogers promptly killed the bear. It chased two men last night and had terrorized the entire region around October Mountain, in the Berkshires, but Mrs. Rogers' pots and pans must not be disturbed.

The bear had been living and flourishing on the big game preserve owned by the William C. Whitney estate. Last night Charles Orth and William Savage were trudging home along the October Mountain road when the bear appeared before them, his bulk blacker than the darkness. The men ran for their lives, and the bear lumbered along in pursuit. Orth and Savage did not stop running until they were safe in John Pierpont's farm house.

William Rogers is a keeper on the Whitney preserve. His wife was alone in her kitchen this morning when she heard a peculiar shuffling in the back yard. The next instant the rear doorway was felled by the bear, which reared on its haunches and with a sweep of one of its fore-paws sent flying the shining utensils that adorned a shelf.

Mrs. Rogers was too angry to be frightened. Her husband's shotgun, loaded with buckshot, stood in a corner. She grabbed the gun, aimed, and in her anger let go both barrels at once.

The gun's recoil felled her and its stock cut her eye, but when she could see more plainly through the clearing smoke the bear lay dead.

Mrs. Rogers got on her feet, picked up a copper pan of which she is very fond, and banged the bear on the head with it, remarking:

"You will come in here and try to break up my house-keeping, will you?"

Noble Youth.

Hudnall Landram, of Chicago, spent last Sunday with his sister, Blanche Laddram and friends in Princeton, Ky., where he formerly worked for the I. C. R. R. Co., before he was promoted and where he is very popular with the best people of Princeton, having lived there for two years. He is highly appreciated by the officials of the I. C., who have extended to him free annual transportation. We are all proud of the advancement of this Smithland boy and hope some day to record the fact that he has been elected President of some great system of Railroads. It is such a boy as these that make possible the great achievements of the present day.

He holds a very important position in the Civil Engineers' department of the I. C. as stenographer and typewriter and we feel certain that we shall be able in the near future to announce deserved promotion of this favored son of Livingston county.—Smithland Banner.

Passed Examination Successfully.

After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Cure cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble. J. H. Orme.

An Editor Gets Married.

Will S. David, editor of the Providence Enterprise, one of the leading local papers of this section, and a jolly good fellow, and a friend to The Post, was in Morganfield Wednesday afternoon and spent the afternoon in this office.

Mr. David said he had struck up with a little streak of leisure and thought he would visit around among friends two or three days, and had selected Union county in which to spend this short vacation.

This vacation has been turned into a honeymoon. Yesterday morning The Post man caught him on the wing as he, accompanied by Miss Laura David, one of Uniontown's favorite daughters, was on his way to Evansville, where they were united in marriage yesterday afternoon. The editor of The Post was at one time associated with Mr. David in the newspaper business and can assure the young lady who is now his wife, that she has a gentleman who is in every way worthy the love and affection which she has pledged.

We understand that Mr. David has drawn a rare prize in the matrimonial market and takes from Union county one of her best young ladies. The Post joins their many friends in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.

"Billie," there's nothing like a good wife in the newspaper business.

never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and began to thrive at once. Give it a trial. J. H. ## A-DOZEN HUNDRED.

NUMBER OF CLASSES AT KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.

PRIZES AGGREGATE $25,000.

Every Department Will Be Filled With the Cream of Displays From Other Fairs.

Fairs—international, national, state, county and municipal—have been held almost since civilization had its beginning, and passing years have not only not dimmed their light but have served to make it more brilliant. At no time perhaps in the history of Kentucky have there been so many county fairs as have been held or will be held in the state during 1907. The number has grown to more than fifty. These county fairs serve to draw all classes closer together and it is fitting that they should form the spokes of the big hub which is known as the Kentucky State Fair.

The State Board of Agriculture, early in maturing the plans for this year's exhibition, which will be held in Louisville, September 16 to 21, arranged to have personal representatives at all of these fairs. These representatives have carried with them catalogues of exhibits and premiums, and attractive advertising matter. At every place they have met a most cordial welcome. Exhibitors, both of live stock and in other departments, were solicited and it is in no sense an exaggeration to say that the cream of the exhibits of every county fair will meet in competition at the Kentucky State Fair.

At the September exhibition, the competition will be for prizes that aggregate $25,000 in cash. The classification covers horses, mules, jack stock, beef and dairy cattle, swine, sheep, goats, poultry, colts, dogs, pigeons, tobacco, field seed and grain, melons and vegetables, plants and flowers, woman's work, children's work and table luxuries.

There are 1,175 different rings in which good money is offered, while there are a total of over 300 different lots. The horse money is divided among horses suitable for light harness, five-gaited saddlers, roadsters, combined harness and five-gaited saddlers, American carriage, three-gaited, plantation saddlers, runabouts, high steppers, Shetland ponies, thorough breeds, and what are classed as fine horses. The mule premiums are most elaborate on pairs and single horse and single mare mules, while good money is offered on jacks and Jennies.

In beef cattle, the classification is complete on Short-horns, Herefords, Polled Durhams, Aberdeen Angus and Red Polls. Most attractive premiums are offered in the dairy cattle department for Jerseys, Holsteins-Friesians, Ayrshires, and Guernseys. The swine department includes Berkshires, Duroc-Jerseys, Poland-Chinas, Chester Whites, Tamworths, Yorkshires, Hampshires, etc. The money for sheep is divided among Shropshires, Cotswolds, South Downs, American Mortons, Oxford Downes, Hampshires and Dorsets. Interesting classifications are arranged for bucks and does in the Angora Goat Department. The poultry premium that covers every known fowl in which this section of the country is interested and the same is true of the pigeon department.

Recognizing the great interest that farmers are displaying in the Collie Dog, as the successor of the Shepherd, a department is given to the former and some very handsome money offered. The departments for vegetables and melons, tobacco, field seed and grain, cover premiums that will appeal to all who are growers of these products. In horticulture there are scores of awards in cash to be made on apples, peaches, pears, grapes, etc. Plants and flowers are not neglected and the money offered should prove a great inducement both to the amateur with the greenhouse, and to the professional florist.

In no department is there a more interesting collection of premiums than in that set aside for woman's work, children's work and table luxuries. It is confidently expected that farm implements and machinery will be shown to a much larger extent than ever before at a Kentucky State Fair.

Ball Bros., of Woodford county, are showing their faith in their horse, Montgomery Chief, in a most substantial way. They are offering $250 in two special premiums for best 1907 foal of Montgomery Chief and for best foal of any age of Montgomery Chief, at the Kentucky State Fair.

The concerts daily at the Kentucky State Fair by Natiello and his premier band of fifty all-star artists from the "Land of Music" should prove an announcement that should strike joy to the hearts of everyone at all musically inclined.

"The World's Greatest Living Color Page of Amusement Enterprises" briefly describes what may be expected among the other big things of the Kentucky State Fair.

The Kentucky State Fair management has arranged an amusement program running way into thousands of dollars, united with an exhibition plan never before attempted.

The Kentucky State Fair management will gladly send a catalogue and descriptive booklet to anyone applying for same.
